Meet Anna from Austria

Gender: Female
Age (at arrival): 15 years
Program length: Year

Anna is a studious, sporty girl who enjoys time with her family: sharing meals, hiking, skiing, and visiting museums. Her parents instilled in her an early interest in history, and she likes studying history in school, but she loves studying chemistry and doing experiments best. Among her hobbies are reading (a daily passion) and rock climbing (a once weekly endeavor). She enjoys church youth group activities such as Christmas caroling and raising money for charities. Anna loves cooking and baking, and she looks forward to cooking or baking something typically Austrian for her host family.

Meet Jasmine from France

Gender: Female
Program length: Year

Jasmine is a curious, independent, and easy-going young woman. One of her greatest passions is drama and acting onstage. She says one of her favorite things about acting is trying to figure out why her characters do and say the things they do. Jasmine also likes following basketball, as she played it for several years before recently taking up tennis. Her favorite subjects in school are economics, sociology, and history, especially 20th century history. After high school, Jasmine hopes to study political science and become a journalist. Her dream job is to be an international reporter.

Meet Shayaan from Pakistan

Gender: Male
Age (at arrival): 15
Program length: Year

Meet Shayaan, an outgoing and sociable student from Pakistan. He values time spent with his parents and younger sister watching sports, playing board games, and discussing technology and world events. Shayaan's greatest passion is community service and he volunteers weekly with the elderly. He views volunteering as an opportunity to exchange life experiences and ideas with people from different backgrounds. He enjoys social and physical activities with friends such as soccer, cricket, and table tennis. He hopes to volunteer and go camping while abroad! Arrival to the H.F. community August 9th.
