

About Your Host: Tyus Tours & Travel

We have been in business since November 1997, we have hosted group cruises with as many as 500 cabins with our own entertainment, our own excursions and private dinners. After 911 the travel business changed and the travel business will again change after Covid-19 and again we will adopt.

We Specialize but can Help with Anything:

As a travel professional, we do our very best to help you with any and all requests for travel, “We specialize in cruises, both ocean and river, all-inclusive resort vacations, destination weddings and honeymoons, guided tours, European Vacations, theme park vacations and The Macy’s Thanksgiving Day Parade. But we’ll be happy to assist you with anything else that you have in mind.

We’re Always Learning Too:

We are constantly learning about travel, whether it is reading or traveling to destinations and resorts. When we travel, it is work. There is very little downtime, and when there is a breakfast or lunch, it is usually a working meal. We network with other travel agents, and we talk about tips and ideas that we have had success with. My whole life is about travel, I cannot get away from talking about it because everyone wants to talk about travel.

We Never Charge a Fee.

Our services are always 100% FREE, but we do charge a small fee if you’re only booking airfare. Although we provide complimentary benefits you cannot access yourself. We know how to arrange VIP experiences including Private Airfare. Our rates and service is better is better than the internet because of the volume we sell.

You can visit us at www.tyustours.com to sign up for our weekly newsletter.

Better Business Bureau

Tyus Tours & Travel has a A+ rating with the BBB.

About the Owner:

Tyus Tours & Travel LLC has been in the travel business since 1997 and is owned and operated by Ricky Tyus who worked as Travel Agent for Travel One (now known as American Express Travel). Travel has changed a lot since 1997 and every year we (Tyus Tours & Travel) are re-trained by the best suppliers in the travel business to create a dream vacation for you.

I am passionate about planning multi-generational, family vacations because I am a grandfather who enjoys his family vacations.

Ricky Tyus has also hosted a bi-weekly podcast (since 2015) called It's Your Time 2 Travel on talktainmentradio.com. The podcast discusses and explores the various means of travel and vacation getaways all over the world as well as addresses the many health benefits in planning and taking time for vacations.

The podcast also provides a forum and opportunity for representative from various vacation getaways to share information about their destination or services with our listening audience. Through the sharing of information from our vendors and the research done in preparing the radio show we have found hidden gems in many destinations that helps us create memories that will last a lifetime.

Testimonials:

July 24, 2018

Disney Vacation for a Family of Five

I just wanted to say Thank you, so much. Our vacation was absolutely amazing and problem FREE.

Thank You-Arnetta D.